Eebrew Kingdoms

According to the Hebrew Bible, Hebrews came from southeastern Mesopotamia near the Persian Gulf. Around 1800 B.C., they migrated west to the Mediterranean coast.

- They are said to have settled in the area called "Canaan," which they felt their god had given them.
- History confirms that a Hebrew kingdom existed by 1200 B.C. Later the kingdom split into Israel and Judah.
- Wars and famine often forced Hebrews to leave their "Promised Land."
- The Hebrews came to be called Jews and their religion Judaism.
